

WIN

a spa break for two at Hartwell House and Spa in Buckinghamshire

WORTH OVER £1,000!

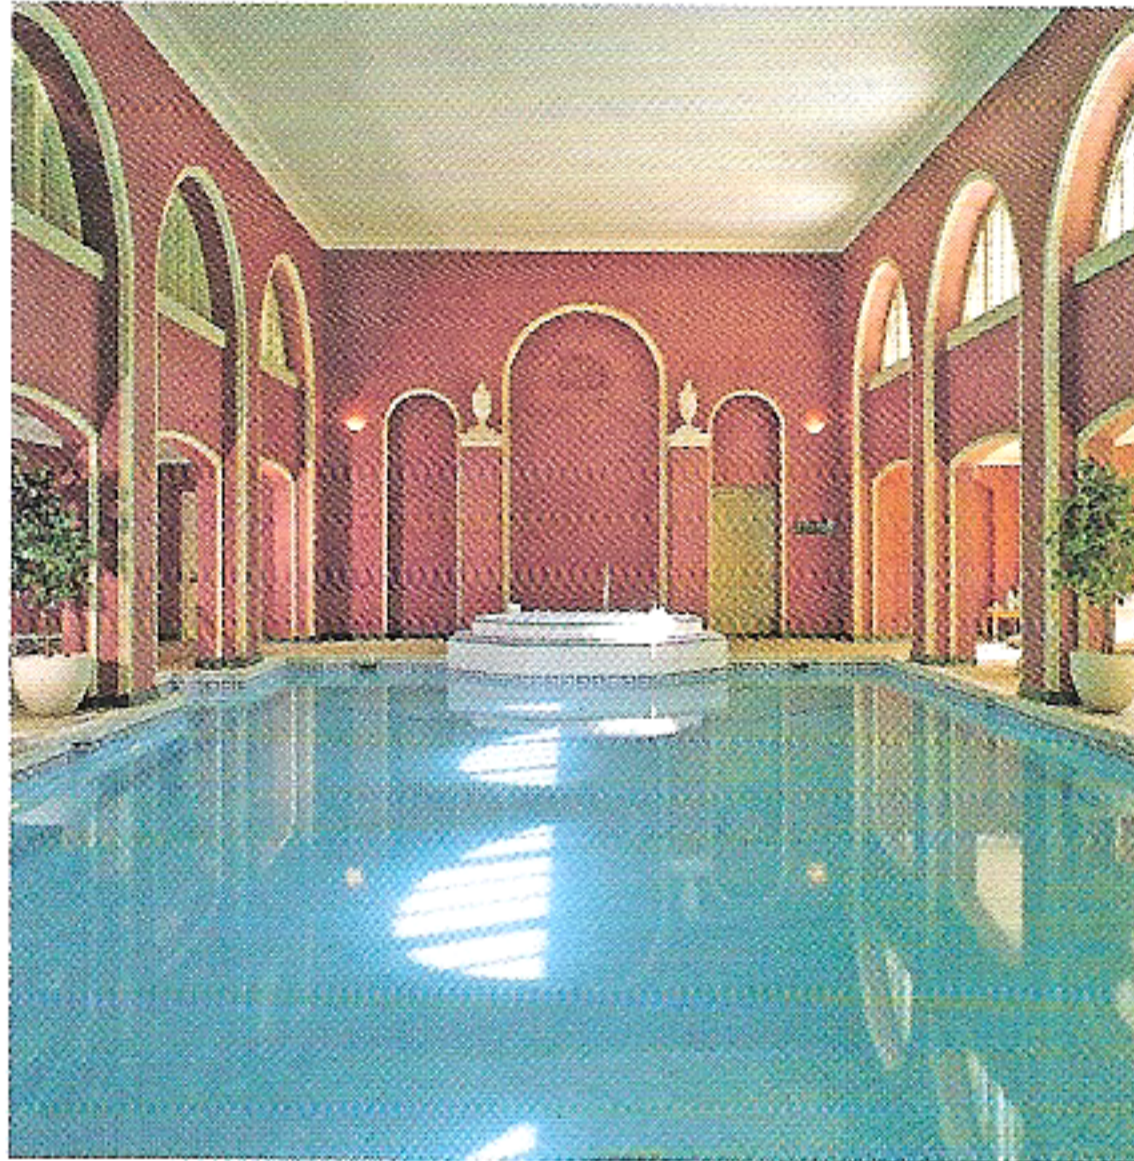

Enjoy the best of British springtime with a chance to win a luxury break at this impressive stately home. Once graced by Louis XVIII, exiled King of France, and today owned by the National Trust, the grade-I listed house has ornate interiors rich with rococo ceilings, antiques and paintings. Surrounding the hotel are 90 acres of landscaped gardens and parkland, some of which date back as far as the 18th century!

Hartwell Spa resides in the heart of the extensive grounds and boasts a fantastic mosaic-lined indoor pool, sauna, steam rooms and gym. The quaint spa café and bar provides an array of healthy (or indulgent) food and refreshment and is perfectly placed for overlooking the pool. Plus, if you arrive on a sunny day, it opens out onto a terrace so you can soak up the sun while you relax.

If you're looking for a simple change of scenery, there's no need to pack for a day out at Hartwell. The Vale of Aylesbury is within easy reach of both London and Oxford. Take a picturesque stroll through the gardens, parkland, statues and follies or explore the orchard where old varieties of British fruit grow in the kitchen garden along with flowers and herbs for the hotel. Visit hartwell-house.com to find out more.

THE PRIZE

One lucky winner and their guest will enjoy an overnight stay in luxury accommodation along with breakfast the next day and use of all spa facilities. Yes, that includes the gymnasium, sauna, steam room, spa bath and relaxation by the swimming pool. They'll also receive one 85-minute treatment from the Spa Tariff menu each, a two course lunch in the café and bar and a three-course dinner in the hotel's restaurant.

ENTER ONLINE AT NATURALHEALTHMAGAZINE.CO.UK

Valid Monday to Thursday. Must be booked in advance and is subject to availability. Travel not included. Further terms and conditions apply.